Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. The use of the trademarks Uvasorb HA 88 and Tinuvin 622 has been noted in this application. They should be capitalized wherever they appear and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 29-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The Trademarks Uvasorb HA 88 and Tinuvin 622 are indefinite in that the claims must provide the metes and bounds of the invention. Applicant should include the generic terminology for these trademarks in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1796

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 28-41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(c) as being clearly anticipated by Raspanti et al., US patent No. 5,658,973.

5. There is clear overlap between applicant's claimed invention and that of Raspanti.

Patentee claims a stabilizing composition including a combination of piperidine and triazine compounds which directly correspond to applicant's compounds of formulae a) and e). See in particular claim 1 at col. 11, line 1 and claim 4. There is no patentable difference between the present and patented invention as applicant has acknowledged in his remarks filed 2/22/2002.

6. Applicant should provide clear data in this application that he is obtaining unexpected synergistic properties for the range of ratios of components a) and e) as now expressed in the current claims. (This would encompass a ratio of 20:1 to 1:20). The claims should then be limited to those ratios of components a) and e) for which applicant can clearly indicate unexpected results. Applicant's comparative data should correspond to the generic terminology of components a) and e) which should also correspond to the Trademarks Uvasorb HA 88 and Tinuvin 622.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kriellion A. Sanders whose telephone number is 571-272-1122. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday 8:30am-7:00pm.
